

Stollen

This flavorful, fruit studded loaf is a standard feature of the German holiday table. It is a bread that can be eaten plain or toasted, with any meal of the day. For a real treat, have a slice with some clotted cream!

Marzipan

This almond treat is adored in Germany. Often made in fanciful figures because it's so easily shaped and sculpted, it delights all ages. Our handmade marzipan is shaped into little lemons and other fruits.

Chocolates

Do we have a treat for you! Our bakers have created a chocolate ganache so rich, so smooth, so exquisitely delicious that we had to offer it to you for the holidays. The ganache fills 1-1/2 inch cups of rich bittersweet chocolate. One is enough, two is better.
